This exclusive Fiji escape gives six guests the rare opportunity to enjoy an entire 14-acre private island in the remote Yasawa archipelago for 8 days and 7 nights. Set in a renovated Lagoon Eco-Villa just steps from a golden-sand beach, the experience blends barefoot luxury, total privacy, and authentic island charm.

Guests can spend their days snorkeling colorful reefs, kayaking turquoise waters, fishing the shallows, visiting a nearby Fijian village, or simply relaxing with chef-prepared meals, massages, and peaceful open-air island living. With a personal host and guide, private beach access, and all-inclusive dining, this is a secluded tropical sanctuary designed for complete relaxation and connection.
